The diagram shows a sequence of four square grids. The first grid is a 2x2 arrangement of four small squares. The second grid is a 3x3 arrangement of nine small squares. The third grid is a 4x4 arrangement of sixteen small squares. The fourth grid is a 5x5 arrangement of twenty-five small squares. Each grid is enclosed in a larger square frame, and the frames are connected by arrows pointing from left to right, indicating a progression or expansion.
