

Is it possible to export the content of students' check-ins?

Yes, and it also supports exporting the check-in data of trainees and the overall check-in data.

1. The check-in content of trainees can be exported in [Diary Management]. It supports exporting text, audio, video, pictures and other content. However, the audio, video and picture content are in the form of links, which need to be opened for viewing.

image.png

2. The check-in data of trainees can be exported in [Trainee Management], including: the number of check-ins, the number of likes received, the number of comments received, the number of reviews received, the number of selections of a single trainee, etc.

image.png

3. The overall check-in data can be exported in [Data Analysis], including: the number of check-ins, the number of people who checked in, new trainees, the number of likes, the number of comments, the number of reviews and the number of selections of a single check-in activity.

image.png

In addition, for calendar check-ins, you can also export the daily check-in status to see if each trainee checked in every day.

image.png

Revision #2

Created 2026-06-08 04:29:53 UTC by Admin

Updated 2026-06-08 08:30:07 UTC by Admin